

Our CEO, Clay Richards, comments on BPCI Advanced with Healthcare Informatics: " The new model includes a convener role, which allows providers to partner with an organization that shares downside risk and provides clinical support technology and management services. With this news, CMS is encouraging providers to take responsibility for patients throughout a continuum of care by targeting increasing variation within post-acute care."

Read the full article here.