

The healthcare industry is undergoing tremendous and rapid transformation to substantially reduce healthcare spending while simultaneously improving patient outcomes and population health, with bundled payments at the forefront of payment reform. This is the only conference on Bundled Payments that will equip you and your organization with innovative strategies and tools to succeed in the new era of healthcare and payments.

Join us at the 2018 Healthcare Bundled Payments Conference in Las Vegas on September 13-14 to learn what highly regarded hospitals, health systems and health plans are doing to be prepared for the challenges that lie ahead in 2018 and beyond. Stop by our table to chat with the naviHealth team!
