

Most people seem to agree that healthcare for seniors needs to be improved. Dr. Jay LaBine, Chief Medical Officer at naviHealth, is ready to answer the tough question, “How?”

In this episode of Paradigm Shift, you’ll learn about where a higher quality of senior care needs to come from, how to demand more transparency for rehabilitative care, and the role that orthopedic surgeons can play in the post-acute stage.

Listen to it here.