

In this episode of SOAP Notes with Dr. Jay LaBine, Jay sits down with Dr. Kyu Rhee, senior vice president and Aetna chief medical officer at CVS Health. The two unpack the meaning of health equity, define lessons learned over the course of the pandemic and identify how health care can stand to treat people utilizing ‘value-based’ care moving forward.

Dr. Rhee currently leads the integration and delivery of clinical and population health solutions. Dr. Rhee has extensive experience in global responsibilities from his previous role as chief health officer at IBM and his role as chief public health officer at the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA). Prior to his work in public service, he also worked as a National Health Service Corps primary care physician and Chief Medical Officer in the community health settings.

Ways to listen:

Here are the topics covered in this episode

The true meaning of health equity - 2:20

Opportunity to deliver ‘values-based’ care - 5:00

How to advance the ‘TechQuity’ movement - 7:30

CVS Health’s commitment to health equity - 13:25

SOAP Notes with Dr. Jay LaBine (Season 2, Episode 4) featuring Dr. Kyu Rhee, senior vice president and Aetna chief medical officer at CVS Health