

As CEO, Clay leads naviHealth's strategic vision and the leadership of the organization. Prior to joining naviHealth, Clay served as Senior Vice President at Healthways, Inc., where he operated as both General Counsel and Senior Vice President. Clay received his undergraduate degree from Washington and Lee University and his law degree from the University of Mississippi. Clay has a passion for community service and serves on the Board of Martha O'Bryan Center, which empowers children, youth, and adults in poverty to transform their lives through work, education, employment, and fellowship. He also serves on the Oak Hill School Board and the Vanderbilt Owen Graduate School of Management Board of Visitors. When he isn't at work, Clay is on the tennis court or grilling up dinner for his family.

View the full article, here.